

Central City East Action Committee (Ad Hoc)

Mission Statement: The Central City East Action Committee (Ad Hoc) (“CCEAC”) is dedicated to offering an open, multi-partisan forum for consideration of community input on issues specially related to Skid Row/Central City East. CCEAC is a temporary ad hoc committee created to offer a forum for community building and action in Skid Row/Central City East. To best develop effective community input, CCEAC will hold monthly meetings that address approximately one major issue related Skid Row/Central City East per meeting. Community input will be considered at each meeting for incorporation into a comprehensive report on issues related to Skid Row/Central City East for presentation to the Board to support implementation of City policies to address community building in Skid Row/Central City East. If necessary, CCEAC intends to take more immediate recommendations to the Board based on community input at any given meeting, such as an independent action letter based on stakeholder input.

Proposed Composition: Robert Newman and Nate Johnson will co-chair CCEAC.

Term: We request a term of one year.
